- On 15 June 1953, all German specialists at the airfield at Lukhovitsy returned to Podberezye. They were informed at Podberezye that they were to proceed with their families to an internment camp in Savelovo, which is alleged to lie on the east bank of the Volga River, opposite Kimry. They were to remain at this camp for a year since there were no employment possibilities for aircraft specialists in Germany at the present time. Specialists from Kuybyshev are also expected to arrive at the camp. 50X1-HUM
- During the past weeks, three wives of specialists and Paul Röhr, one of the specialists, have suffered nervous breakdowns and were believed to have been sent to a hospital in Kalinin.
